INTRODUCTION

Disarmament is recognized as the most important problem facing the world today. It is, as well, one of the most complex.

This brief summary has been prepared to set in perspective the positions of the Allied Powers and the Soviet Bloc on various aspects of the arms limitation and control problem. The summary covers these positions as they stood on March 15, 1960 when negotiations commenced at Geneva within the Ten Nation* Disarmament Conference.

*Allied Nations: United States, United Kingdom, France, Canada, Italy.
Soviet Bloc Nations: USSR, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Romania.

DISARMAMENT GOALS

ALLIED

"The ultimate goal is a secure, free, and peaceful world in which there shall be general disarmament under effective international control and agreed procedures for the settlement of disputes in accordance with the principles of the U. N. Charter."

SOVIET BLOC

"After carefully considering the present international situation and the experience of earlier disarmament negotiations, the Government of the Soviet Union has come to the conclusion that the best means of solving the disarmament problem, which is the chief international problem of our time, is complete and general disarmament by all States."

NUCLEAR WEAPONS

ALLIED

FIRST STAGE

Joint Study to provide a basis for assuring compliance with an agreement to discontinue production of nuclear weapons. A similar study to assure compliance with an agreement to transfer existing nuclear weapons to non-weapons uses.

SECOND STAGE

Agreement to cease production of nuclear weapons immediately upon the establishment of effective controls to verify compliance (conditional upon satisfactory progress in the reduction of conventional armed forces). A similar agreement to transfer fissionable material from existing weapons stocks in agreed quantities upon the establishment of effective controls to verify compliance.

THIRD STAGE

Further agreements to prohibit production of nuclear, chemical, biological and other weapons of mass destruction and to reduce existing stocks of such weapons to achieve the final elimination of these weapons.

SOVIET BLOC

FIRST STAGE

No specific measures.

SECOND STAGE

No specific measures.

THIRD STAGE

Agreement on the destruction of all types of nuclear weapons. Agreement on a prohibition of production, possession and storage of chemical and bacteriological weapons. The destruction of all stocks of these weapons under international supervision.

CONVENTIONAL ARMED FORCES AND ARMAMENTS

ALLIED

FIRST STAGE

Agreement on collection of information on levels of all armed forces and quantities of armaments based on a unilateral declaration of states on an agreed basis.

Agreement on initial force levels of 2.5 million for the U. S. and U. S. S. R. and appropriate levels for certain other states.

Agreement on storage in internationally supervised depots of certain types and quantities of armaments so that armaments placed in depots bear an agreed relation to agreed force level ceilings.

SECOND STAGE

Agreement on force levels of 2.1 million for the U. S. and U. S. S. R. and appropriate levels for all other militarily significant states to be determined by a conference of such states to be carried out simultaneously with the establishing of inspection and verification measures.

Agreement to place in storage depots agreed types and quantities of armaments in agreed relationship to force level ceilings.

THIRD STAGE

Further agreement on reduction of national armed forces and armaments by progressive safeguarded steps (after such further joint studies as may be necessary) to levels required by internal security and fulfillment of obligations under the United Nations Charter to the end that no single nation or group of nations can effectively oppose enforcement of international law.

SOVIET BLOC

FIRST STAGE

Agreement on reductions of armed force levels of 1.7 million for the U. S., U. S. S. R. and Communist China, and 650,000 for the U. K. and France. Reductions of armed force levels of other stages to be agreed at special U. N. General Assembly or world conference.

Agreement on reductions of armaments to correspond to force levels fixed for armed forces.

SECOND STAGE

Agreement on the complete disbandment of all remaining armed forces.

Agreement on the elimination of all military bases on territories of foreign states.

THIRD STAGE

Agreement on the abolishment of all military institutions, courses, and organizations.

OUTER SPACE

ALLIED

FIRST STAGE

Agreement on prior notification to the international control organization of proposed launchings of space vehicles.

Joint study to provide a basis for assuring that no nation shall place into orbit or station in outer space weapons of mass destruction.

SECOND STAGE

Agreement on prohibiting the placing into orbit or stationing in outer space vehicles capable of mass destruction immediately upon the establishment of adequate controls to assure compliance.

THIRD STAGE

Further agreements on measures to ensure the use of outer space for peaceful purposes only.

SOVIET BLOC

FIRST STAGE

No specific measure.

SECOND STAGE

No specific measures.

THIRD STAGE

No specific measures.

MISSILES

ALLIED

FIRST STAGE

Joint study to provide a basis for assuring prior notification of missile launchings and declarations to the international control organization of the locations of manufacture and location of launching sites.

SECOND STAGE

Agreement on prior warning of launching of missiles and declarations of the locations of manufacture and launching sites with agreed verification including provision for on-site inspections of launching sites.

THIRD STAGE

Further agreements on control of production of military missiles and existing national stocks and their final elimination.

SOVIET BLOC

FIRST STAGE

No specific measures.

SECOND STAGE

No specific measures.

THIRD STAGE

Agreement on the destruction of all types of missiles.

SURPRISE ATTACK

ALLIED

FIRST STAGE

Joint study to provide a basis for agreed measures to give participating states protection from the danger of surprise attack.

SECOND STAGE

Agreement on appropriate measures to give participating states protection against surprise attack including aerial inspection, ground observers, overlapping radar, notification of aircraft flights and appropriate communications.

THIRD STAGE

No specific measures.

SOVIET BLOC

FIRST STAGE

No specific measures.

SECOND STAGE

No specific measures.

THIRD STAGE

No specific measures.

NOTE: The Soviet proposal states that if the Allied Powers are not ready to embark on the measures outlined by the Soviet Union for complete and general disarmament, the Soviet Union would consider certain partial measures which would include "conclusion of an agreement on the prevention of surprise attack by one state upon another".

ENFORCEMENT MACHINERY

ALLIED

SOVIET BLOC

FIRST STAGE

Agreement on the establishment of an International Disarmament Organization (IDO) to be progressively expanded as disarmament measures are agreed.

Arrangements made to provide a basis for developing and strengthening international machinery to preserve world peace and security within the framework of the UN.

SECOND STAGE

Arrangements further developed for the strengthening of the International Disarmament Organization and international machinery to preserve world peace and security within the framework of the UN.

FIRST STAGE

No specific measures.

SECOND STAGE

continued

ALLIED

THIRD STAGE

Final development and strengthening of international machinery to preserve world peace and security within the framework of the United Nations.

THIRD STAGE

No specific measures.

NOTE: The Soviet proposal states:

"For the purpose of supervising the implementation of the measures of general and complete disarmament, an international control organ shall be established. The extent of the control and inspection exercised shall correspond to the stage reached in the phased disarmament of States.

Upon the completion of general and complete disarmament, which shall include the disbandment of all services of the armed forces and the destruction of all types of weapons, including weapons of mass destruction (nuclear, rocket, chemical, bacteriological), the international control organ shall have free access to all objects of control.

The control organization may institute a system of aerial observation and aerial photography over the territories of States."

OTHER MEASURES

ALLIED

MILITARY BUDGETS

Provision is made in all three stages of the Allied Plan for measures to verify military expenditures beginning in the first stage with unilateral declarations by states of the amount of such expenditures and concluded in the third stage with the establishment of effective controls over military budgets.

SOVIET BLOC

MILITARY BUDGETS

Provision is made in the third stage of the Soviet Bloc Plan for "the appropriation of funds for military purposes in any form, whether from State budgets or from public organizations, shall be discontinued. The funds made available as a result of the implementation of general and complete disarmament shall be used to reduce or abolish taxation of the population, to subsidize national economics and to furnish extensive economic and technical assistance to under-developed countries."
